

Painting of plastics

Own technology consisting of three independent workstations dedicated for applying of three different surface coatings:

- primer paint
- colour paint and
- transparent top paint.

Each workstation consists of an independent booth with a manual spray gun, an outflow booth for pre-drying and an independent drying oven.

The air-conditioned areas for painting are designed as independent units for the preparation of parts and their painting.

